Summary

Senior Fullstack Python Developer with extensive experience architecting high-performance web applications, scalable REST/GraphQL APIs, and reactive frontend architectures. Highly proficient in Python web frameworks (FastAPI, Django, Flask) paired with modern React/TypeScript ecosystems, PostgreSQL/SQLAlchemy, and cloud-native AWS infrastructures. Adept at driving technical roadmaps, optimizing system performance, and mentoring cross-functional engineering teams.

Experience

- Lead Fullstack & AI Engineer
Cedzlabs

2022-06 - Present

Leading technical strategy, full-stack architecture, and production deployments for high-throughput AI and cloud SaaS platforms.
- Lead Full-Stack Developer
Circleup AG

2023-12 - 2024-12

Directed system architecture, microservices migration, and automated calculation pipelines for enterprise circular economy platforms.
- Software Developer Intern – Fullstack & AI
Nutrish.ai

2025-01 - 2025-07

Developed AI-driven web applications and predictive backend services with Python, Next.js, and PostgreSQL.
- Research Assistant – Distributed Systems & Python
University of Konstanz

2026-02 - Present

Engineering decentralized algorithms, high-concurrency event loops, and data pipelines in Python and C++.

Projects

- Cloud-Native AI SaaS & Microservice API Engine

Python

FastAPI

React

TypeScript

PostgreSQL

Docker

AWS

Engineered an end-to-end cloud platform featuring a persistent FastAPI backend, Redis queue, and React/Next.js frontend with real-time streaming.
- AI-Powered Semantic Search & Career Platform

Python

React

Next.js

PostgreSQL

Redis

Docker

Built a full-stack platform leveraging Python APIs, vector embeddings, and React to match candidate profiles with job requisitions via semantic matching.

Education

- Universität Konstanz

2025-04 - Present

Master of Science in Computer and Information Science in Distributed Systems, Machine Learning & Software Architecture

GPA: Current Studies

Achievements

AWS Cloud Architecture & Scalability

Proven expertise in deploying containerized microservices and automated CI/CD workflows on AWS

Engineering Leadership & Mentorship

Track record of mentoring developers, setting testing standards, and leading microservice architecture transitions
